HOLLYWOOD HERE WE COME...

ALUMNI WEEKEND 1993 - JUNE 11, 12, 13

Bryant alumni are headed for Hollywood this June as we transform the Tupper Campus into the magical world of the movies. All alumni are invited back to share fond memories and enjoy the silver screen.

TAKE 1:

We'll roll 'em on Friday with Greek Revival II featuring entertainment, a dinner buffet, and a cash bar. Independents are more than welcome to join in the fun. You won't even be "rushed"!

Another highlight of the evening will be the premiere party with a classic double feature playing and a scrumptious dessert buffet between shows.

Don't forget to stop by the concession stand for a quick bite!

TAKE 2:

The 50th reunion class and the Loyal Guard will gather for a look at "The Way We Were" on Saturday afternoon while the "M*A*S*H" party, directed by the Class of '83, steals the show

REUNION

NATIONAL ALUMNI COUNCIL

Initial meeting results in many ideas and plans

INTRODUCING THE ALUMNI UPDATE

Replacing the Alumni Newsletter, it will be your primary resource for information about alumni activities and events. Both the Alumni Update and the Bryant Review magazine have been redesigned so that we at Bryant can better communicate with you, our alumni.

For those who cherish the days of the East Side campus, the Class of '68 offers a casual lunch and entertainment on the lawn of the former South Hall.

Stay tuned for a glamorous Alumni Academy Awards cocktail reception in the evening. All the stars will come out for this one! Don't miss it!

The gala presented by the classes of 1933 - 93 following the awards is sure to be a blockbuster hit!

Playing opposite the gala will be the newly released Flashback to '88. (Given two thumbs up as the show of shows for ALL young alumni.)

TAKE 3:

Enjoy a delightful champagne brunch with favorite faculty before you head home.

The ticket booth will be open most of the weekend; however, seats are limited so please register in advance.

Watch your mail for your alumni weekend brochure and registration form or call the Alumni Office at (401) 232-6040.

Lots of laughter is always on the agenda for Reunion.

Amidst the large parties, alumni take time for personal reunions of their own.

BEST BEAT

Recent alumni are helping their alma mater by serving as volunteers for the admission effort. Highlights of the Bryant Enrollment Support Team (BEST) Network's efforts to date include:

- BEST members made over 900 contacts, via phone and mail, in 14 different states between July and November to students who have expressed an interest in the College.

- Thirty-two BEST members did a tremendous job representing Bryant at 42 College Nights in Florida, Ohio, New York, Connecticut, New Jersey, and Virginia this past fall.

- Bryant Trustee Joe Duffy '69 hosted a reception on December 10 at the LA Athletic Club for area students who have shown an interest in Bryant. Bill Shay '90 and Laurie Biracree '92 attended the event and have been telephoning prospective California students.

- "How long did it take you to find a job after graduation?" was the number one question asked of the eight BEST representatives attending the October Open House on campus.

- At the November 14 meeting of the National

RHODE ISLAND

BE A MENTOR

The Student Alumni Association and the Rhode Island Alumni Chapter are hosting mentor receptions on Thursday, February 11, and Thursday, April 22, at 6 p.m. in the Papilio Dining Room on campus. These events offer an excellent opportunity for alumni mentors to meet with their assigned students in a comfortable setting. For more information on the receptions or on becoming an alumni mentor to current Bryant students, please call Donna Harris at (401) 232-6040. To register, send your completed registration form (below) to the Alumni Office at least ten days prior to the event. There is no charge for alumni mentors to attend these receptions.

JOIN THE ACTT

The Rhode Island Alumni Chapter, in cooperation with the Offices of Alumni Relations and Career Services, has coordinated a support group for unemployed alumni. The Alumni Career Transitions Team (ACTT) will hold its first meeting on Tuesday, February 16, at 9 a.m. in Room BC1 of the Bryant Center on campus. The group will offer you the opportunity to talk with peers who are experiencing similar circumstances in this difficult economy as well as facilitate networking. On the 16th, the group will determine how frequently they need to meet and set an agenda to suit participants' needs. To join the ACTT, please call (401) 232-6090 by February 10.

FEELING SANDWICHED?

Do you ever feel sandwiched between caring for your young children and elderly parents? Many of us do and that is why the Rhode Island Chapter has planned the "Families in the Sandwich Generation" continuing education program. Scheduled to run from 9 a.m. to 12 noon on Saturday, March 27, the program will explore this situation and offer tips for surviving with your sanity intact. Tickets are $20 per family and may be ordered by sending your check made payable to Bryant College with your completed reservation form to the Alumni Office by March 5.

BREAKFAST WITH CHAMPIONS

The RI Chapter has been hard at work preparing a Speaker Breakfast Series just for you. We'll meet once a month at the Marriott Hotel in downtown Providence from 7:30 to 9 a.m. Tickets are $10 per person and include a full breakfast. You may order tickets for one breakfast or for the entire series by calling Donna Harris at (401) 232-6040 or by returning the reservation form on this page.

JOB FAIR FOR EXPERIENCED ALUMNI

For the third consecutive year, Bryant is one of a consortium of seven schools in the greater Boston area which has tailored a job fair for alumni with at least one year's experience in the work force. The fair will be held on Thursday, April 1, from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. at the Hynes Convention Center in Boston, MA. Advance registrations, postmarked by March 15, are only $10 per person. Admission at the door is $15 per person.

Only alumni from the consortium schools have been invited to participate in this exclusive event which will include workshops focusing on job search strategies. To receive a brochure and registration form, write to the Office of Career Services, Bryant College, 1150 Douglas Pike, Smithfield, RI 02917-1284 or call (401) 232-6090.

JOIN THE BRYANT ALUMNI CAREER NETWORK

Making a successful transition from college into the business world requires extensive planning.

If you live or work in Rhode Island, you are invited to help plan the Rhode Island chapter's activities. The next meeting is Thursday, February 18, at 6 p.m. on campus (Rooms 2A and B of the Bryant Center). Chair Ernie Almonte '78, '85MST expects, "the full slate of spring activities will make this an energetic and productive meeting."

BRUINS IN ACTION

If you haven't purchased your tickets for Bryant night at the Providence Bruins on February 19 yet, call the Alumni Office at (401) 232-6040 or Bob Hallberg '80, '87MBA at (401) 253-6700. Face-off is at 7 p.m. Then join us in the Encore Restaurant and Lounge between the first and second periods for refreshments. We have just a few tickets left. Tickets for alumni and guests are only $8 per person. Don't miss out!

Alumni Career Network. The network is composed of Bryant alumni involved in programs designed to help students prepare for their future. With a variety of options to choose from, you can become involved in:

- Career in . . . Series:
Return to campus and speak to students about your professional experiences.
- Telephone Interviews:
Become an over-the-phone source of information for students who have questions about your particular field.
- Student Visitations:
Meet with students at your place of employment to answer their questions about your career field.
- Shadowing:
Provide students with an "inside look" at the career they are interested in by spending a half or full day with them at your worksite.

NATIONAL NEWS

NATIONAL ALUMNI COUNCIL MEETS

The first meeting of the National Alumni Council was held on campus on Saturday, November 14. More than 35 alumni from a broad demographic range represented five states and the District of Columbia.

Bryant trustee and council Chair Jerry Cerce '69 conducted a fast-paced, informative meeting with presentations from Annual Giving Director Nancy Haverstock, Volunteer Admission Coordinator Eileen Chekal, Career Services Assistant Director Barbara Gregory, and Alumni Relations Assistant Director Jill (Charpentier) Nosach '86. The new regionally-based national structure was discussed, and participants broke into five small discussion groups. Topics ranged from enhanced communications to alumni participation in The Annual Fund and career services.

"Many good ideas and a lot of enthusiasm characterized our meeting. Under Jerry's leadership and with the increased representation on the Board of Trustees, I'm confident that we are embarking on a new era of alumni relations at Bryant," stated Paula (Pascone) Iacono '69, director of alumni relations.

Plans are being discussed for broadening the next year's National Alumni Council meeting into a two day session which will include all aspects of volunteer training, as well as a recognition ceremony acknowledging the dedicated efforts of alumni volunteers and leaders.

One of the key developments of the Task Force on Alumni Relations was the increased alumni representation on the Board of Trustees. Voting alumni trustees now make up almost 25 percent of the full board, with additional representation by nonvoting alumni on several trustee committees. "This is a significant change from the structure of the board as recently as five years ago," stated Paula.

BRYANT COLLEGE

ALUMNI SURVEY 1993

Dear Alumnus/a:

We at Bryant are very proud of our alumni. You are a varied and interesting group who are successful personally and professionally.

When students consider coming to Bryant, they want to know about our alumni. Learning about you lets them understand the value of a Bryant degree. You also like to hear about each other. And knowing what you're involved in gives us story ideas for the Bryant Review and this Alumni Update.

One of our goals for the new year and beyond is improved communications with our alumni. Help us meet that objective by taking a few minutes to complete this survey.

We look forward to hearing from you. Thank you for participating in this survey.

Sincerely,

Paula (Pascone) Iacono '69
